PLANTING PROMISES: The Mustard Seed

Nearly 30 years ago, a group began a handbell choir for mentally challenged adults in their Brandon, Mississippi, community. The rewards on both sides were so positive, the bell choir evolved into a large-scale, Christ-centered ministry called the Mustard Seed. Its name comes from Matthew 17:20: “. . . if ye have faith even as small as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, move from here to there, and it will move and nothing will be impossible to you.” The group now serves nearly 50 “Seedsters” with music, social activities, and even visual arts. Look for the Seedsters’ cards and ceramic works in local galleries and online to help fund the group’s art programs. For information, contact the Mustard Seed at 601-992-3556, or visit mustardseedinc.org.
